

Familiar to his friends with respect to the prospects of free labor in the United States would help me much in dealing with the subject in our own Colonies.

I could wish also to inform myself of his views as to the practicability of (as has been suggested) an emigration on a considerable scale of the Black population ^{as settlers} from America to Jamaica. Very truly

T. B. Potter Esq. &c. C. S. Roundell

I wish to touch on that subject, & should regard it as a favour if he would be so good as to refer me to any chief books or publications that subject, and upon bearing upon the question (of free labour generally) in America, about which I am quite ignorant.

The knowledge of the ~~various~~ hopes & expectations of our

I return to London on Thursday.

44. PICCADILLY. W.

15 July 1867

Dear Mr Potter,

I shall gladly serve on the Committee of the Cobden Club, in which I am much interested.

Could you please me by informing Mr Garrison that I have promised to write